This little booklet was written by Mark Riffer and illustrated by Jacob Nelson and distributed by Dan & Mark at swordandspirit.com who take full responsibility for all the good stuff. If you find you didn't agree with something in here, don't panic! Read it over and over and over until you do agree or until you get a burning in the bosom confirming that we were right the whole time – then all shall be well. Really. :) And, for what it's worth, all this is copyrighted by sword and spirit ministries. So there!
